Energy Efficiency and Conservation Block Grants Program

Eligible Activities

The Solution Center - Eligible Activities page is designed as a resource for individuals looking for information on energy efficiency and renewable energy. It includes energy savings information tailored to local and state governments and Indian tribes. Information is arranged by eligible activity, and includes a definition of each as well as related best practices, samples of completed projects that can be used as a reference for your own energy efficiency projects, and links to related project resources.
