Key Personnel:

- CAPCOG: Mark Sweeney, David Fowler
- TxDOT: Ed Collins, Elizabeth Prestwood
- Texas A&M Transportation Institute: Tina Geiselbrecht, Greg Griffin
County Point of Contact

• Will help with formation of Advisory Committee

• Attend Advisory Committee and Public Meetings

• Serve as Primary County Liaison for all Matters
Advisory Committee Duties:

• Attend Committee and Public Meetings
• Review Existing Conditions Research
• Assist with Public Outreach
• Evaluate Transportation Improvements and Economic Development Strategies
• Review Draft Plan Products and Submit Recommendations to the Commissioners’ Court
Potential Advisory Committee Members:

- County Elected Officials
- City Elected Officials (Johnson City, Blanco, Round Mountain)
- Economic Development Corporations, Chambers of Commerce
- School District Representatives
- Utility Company Representatives
- Regional Transportation Agencies (CARTS, TxDOT, VA)
- City/County Technical or Executive Staff
- Business Representatives
- Citizen Representatives
Public Outreach:

• Two or More Public Meetings
• Survey or other type of public input
• Website linked to County Homepage
• Presentations to City Council or Commissioners’ Court meetings
Discussion of Major Issues Affecting the County:

A. Transportation Issues

B. Economic Development Issues
Summary of Proposed Plan Elements:

• Introduction
• Existing Conditions
• Future Conditions
• Travel Demand
• Economic Development Goals and Strategy
• Comprehensive Transportation Goals and Strategy
• Steps for Plan Implementation
Next Steps:

• Submit Advisory Committee Nominees to CAPCOG by Dec. 21, 2012

• Schedule First Advisory Committee Meeting for latter part of January 2013
Capital Area Council of Governments

www.capcog.org

David Fowler, AICP, Senior Planner
dfowler@capcog.org
512.916.6165