BASTROP BLANCO BURNET CALDWELL FAYETTE HAYS LEE LLANO TRAVIS WILLIAMSON

The Jack Griesenbeck Leadership in Regionalism Award

Eligibility

Elected official or volunteer who played a pivotal role in bringing the spirit of regionalism to a project or initiative within the 10-county region.

Award Criteria

The individual nominated should have influenced a relationship between organizations, governmental agencies or committees representing multiple political jurisdictions to accomplish the project or initiative, either on a one-time or ongoing basis.

The nature of the project or initiative may be planning or implementation involving issues such as health, education, safety, economic development, transportation, natural resources, housing or any others that contributes to the growth and development of the region. The project or initiative must have taken place during the calendar year and have primarily focused on an issue within the CAPCOG region.

Selection and Award

The CAPCOG Nomination Committee and staff will review applications and select the winner, who will be announced at the CAPCOG General Assembly annual meeting on Dec. 8.

Application Process

The candidate should be nominated by a CAPCOG General Assembly Representative but does not have to represent or be employed by a CAPCOG member. Nominations should address the following:

- 1.) What was the nature of the project or initiative on which the nominee worked, including his or her role?
- 2.) Which organizations, agencies, or committees were brought together to achieve regional cooperation, and why was this necessary to accomplish the project or initiative?
- 3.) What was the outcome of the project, and were the goals or objectives achieved?
- 4.) How did the nominee make a difference in achieving success?

Submit completed nominations to Mason W. Canales at mcanales@capcog.org or by fax at 512-916-6001.
